

Topsy the elephant incident remembered 100 years later

Written by Jessie Labell

Wednesday, June 09, 2021 12:00 AM

Published October 6, 2022, by Lauren Schuster, WECT News.

Topsy the elephant incident remembered 100 years later

On Oct. 9th, 1922, the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus came to Wilmington. After the show, a four-ton Indian elephant named Topsy broke loose and headed toward downtown Wilmington.

Read the Article

More News