

The Burgwin-Wright House and Gardens Community Programs

Written by Miss Sharryse M. Piggott
Wednesday, February 14, 2018 04:10 PM

The Burgwin-Wright House and Gardens has offered programs for the public since opening its doors as a museum. In 1952 The Burgwin-Wright House and Gardens began offering fieldtrips to select schools. This ritual of the past is a tradition of the museum. Museum director, Ms. Christine Lamberton oversees the programs department. According to Lamberton

More From the Scrapbook