

Art by Pam Toll Pairs with Heirloom Silver

Written by Allen, Joy
Tuesday, March 28, 2017 09:46 AM

The March 24 Fourth Friday Gallery Night at the Burgwin-Wright House attracted a good deal of media attention both before and after the event.

Art by Pam Toll, heirloom silver at Burgwin-Wright on March 24

published by the Wilmington Star News

Toll's "Native Landscape" exhibit brings together drawings, monotypes and mixed media works that convey the landscapes of the region.

The newly renovated exhibit hall of the Burgwin-Wright House will host an opening reception for "Native Landscape" by artist Pam Toll from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, March 24.

Part of downtown Wilmington's Fourth Friday Gallery Night, the show will also include a pop-up exhibit, "Heirloom Silver" showcasing silver pieces that belonged to three former owners of the Burgwin-Wright House...

View the Story

PHOTOS: Opening reception for local artist Pam Toll

published by the Wilmington Star News

View the Photo Gallery

Terah Wilson: Pam Toll's art exhibit at the Burgwin-Wright House

published by the Wilmington Star News

View the Video
More News...