

Burgwin-Wright restoration project is unearthing color trends from the 1770s

Written by Allen, Joy

Friday, March 09, 2018 03:22 PM

By Johanna Ferebee - March 8, 2018, Port City Daily

WILMINGTON—Time, taste and the advent of electricity have colored interior decorating trends for centuries.

Now, for the first time since the 1770s, the Burgwin-Wright House will return to its original colors.

Click below to read the article and view photographs of the restoration projects.

Read the Story

More News