Written by Member Services
Tuesday, March 24, 2020 11:13 AM

Posted Jan 12, 2020, at 6:30 AM, Star News Online published a story about the Executive Director of the NSCDA-NC , Joy Allen, and her persistence in dealing with the restorations to the headquarters house that followed after hurricane Florence.

New roof, enduring history: Burgwin-Wright House renovated after Florence

The 250-year-old house and staple of historic Wilmington is getting a new roof, shutters after damage from Florence in 2018

by Hunter Ingram

Read the Article
View Photos of the Restoration
More News